

Task 2: Examples of interview questions

If you are well prepared before entering an interview, there is nothing to worry about. Remember to be polite, enthusiastic and most importantly- be yourself!

Here are some of the most popular interview questions found by internet surveys. Read them carefully and answer them as best you can:

Firstly, About you:

Don't be tempted to tell your life story! Concentrate on your education, work and skills, and be to the point with your answers.

1. Tell me a little about yourself.
