

Learning Outcome 2

3. What do you believe are your greatest strengths and weaknesses?

Don't focus on the negative. Even when talking about weaknesses, do not just state what they are, but how you are trying to positively overcome them.

4. What is your biggest achievement to date?

The next few are about giving examples of times when you have had to deal with certain situations and how you resolved problems. Use examples from work, college, work experience or your home life.

5. Describe an incident when you have had to take responsibility.
