

Spider-Man: Homecoming

US | 2017 | 133 mins | Dir: Jon Watts | Cert. 12A | Engaging for ages 11+
Curriculum links: Media Studies, Science, Citizenship

Peter Parker is desperate for his mentor Tony Stark to make Spider-Man a full-time member of The Avengers. Trouble is, he's only 15, still in school, and struggling to balance being a heroic crime-fighter with the everyday concerns of a teenager. When Adrain Toomes – a disgruntled blue-collar employee of Tony Stark – emerges intent on stealing Avengers technology to sell on the black market, Peter finds the two sides of his life brought together in unexpected ways.

Marvel Studios/Columbia Pictures © (2016) All rights reserved.

Spider-Man: Homecoming

Talk about it before the film

A famous line from the Spider-Man comics is "with great power comes great responsibility". What do you think this means?

© 2016 INTO FILM. All rights reserved.

Activity

Design a new, fearsome villain for Spider-Man to go up against. What would they look like? What would their motivations be? Why would Spider-Man be the best person to defeat them?

